When and how should we register?

Register on line or by mail by July 12, 2024, to avoid the $10 late fee. You may always bring more teens or workers than you pre-register, but any changes that are made need to be e-mailed as soon as possible so we can keep an accurate registration—e-mail changes to anita.couser@swbaptist.org. Every conference attendee needs to be pre-registered. The $30.00 registration fee is non-refundable. (There will not be a credit card fee this year.)

What is the dress code?

All: No sleeveless, see-through, low cut, or form-fitting clothes. Shirts need to cover the midriff and back at all times. Clothing should not have any questionable pictures or writing.

Young Ladies: Culottes, skirts, or dresses must be below the knee. Slits in skirts or dresses should also be below the knee. No pants, capris, gauchos, or shorts of any kind are allowed. Skirts or dresses should be worn to the evening services.

Young Men: Wind pants may be worn only during activity times. No shorts will be permitted at any time. Collared shirts or dress clothes should be worn to the evening services.

Hurricane Harbor: For the evening activities, the guys and girls will be divided up between Main Event and Hurricane Harbor for separate swim times. The dress code for Hurricane Harbor is as follows:

Young Ladies: swimsuit with knee length shorts, and a colored t-shirt
(Please make sure your group follows this dress code!)

Young Men: knee length shorts and a colored t-shirt

What should not be brought?

All conference attendees should understand that they should not bring alcoholic beverages, drugs, tobacco of any kind, radios, CD/ MP3 players, iPods, books or magazines, video games, weapons, fireworks, pets, or any illegal items.
